Seminary Update

On Wednesday 28th January the Stornoway (Kenneth Street) Free Church congregation met to discuss the proposed sale of the Seminary building to our congregation. Sadly, the proposal failed to reach the 70% majority for it to pass. The Kirk Session and Deacons' Court wish to assure the congregation that our resolve to find a suitable building to facilitate the worship and witness of the congregation remains undimmed and we continue to put our trust in our sovereign Lord to guide us in His will. We would ask the congregation to continue to make this a matter for prayer. Furthermore, if anyone has any thoughts or suggestions about any potential building that we could make use of please let either Chris Martin (Session Clerk) or Roddy Ferguson (Deacons' Court Clerk) know. We are truly grateful for the continued love and support of the congregation in our endeavours to share the good news of the Lord Jesus Christ and honour His Name.

Finally, we wish to express our gratitude to the Kirk Session and Deacons' Court of the Kenneth Street congregation for their cooperation and fraternal support throughout the past two years of discussions regarding the Seminary. While we're understandably disappointed at the final outcome of the congregational meeting, we wish to assure their Office Bearers of our continued prayers as they seek the Lord's leading regarding a new pastor for their congregation.

Bayhead at The County

The next fellowship meeting will be in the County Hotel this Sunday 1st Feb 8pm, all ages are welcome to come along

Any who did not indicate an interest previously but would like to attend, would also be very welcome to stay behind for a chat.*

Weekly freewill envelopes

The new issue of weekly giving envelopes will be ordered soon.
